PROGRAMME CHANGED

No Nomination Made for President as Was Intended.

PLATFORM ADOPTED.

Roosevelt the Most Popular Man in the Convention—Hawley Men Win Over the Green Faction
From Texas.

Philadelphia, June 10.—A cool and bracing northeasterly breeze moderated the temperature and a cloudless sky afforded ideal conditions for the work of the second day of the Republican national convention. Again crowds were astir early, the streets were filled with hosts of visitors, marching clubs and shouting vendors of badges. It was noticeable, however, that men with white plug hats and red, white and blue umbrellas were thinning out and that a part of the more demonstrative tide of travel was setting away from the convention city. After the experience of yesterday officials at the convention hall were confident of handling the crowds without a hitch and early drills were dispensed with.

The litter made on the first day was cleared away by the army of attendants and troops of scrub women gave everything a characteristic Philadelphia cleaning and the interior of the vast structure was again as immaculate as when first invaded. Outside the hall, the grounds were kept free, except to officials and attendants, and crowds again congested at the entrance. Five streetscar lines emptying hundreds and later thousands into the approaches.
Perfect order prevailed and all the arrangements tended to the ease and comfort of the visitors.

The working members of the convention, delegates and alternates, remained down town during the early hours.
Some of the states held morning causes, again seeking to determine the sentiment on the chief subject of vexation, the vice president. Senator Hanna appeared at breakfast smiling and apparently confident, without a trace of worry or fatigue from the nerve-racking ordeal of the last few days. Other leaders turned from secret conferences, which had been so constant up to now and awaited the solution of the pending questions on conditions now established.

Their varying comments indicated that while the crisis is not expected today, it is felt to be at least a strong possibility.

The programme for the day is comparatively simple. The various committees had practically completed their work in the morning so as to have everything in readiness for prompt reports, although contests on credentials were expected. With this routine out of the way, nominations for presidency would be in order and then will come the carnival of eloquence. Senator Foraker, the fiery, eloquent, strong voiced and popular speaker is to make the nominating speech for McKinley with the principal second speeches from Thurston of Nebraska and Governor Roosevelt of New York. It may be, however, the governor may desire in the exigency to present conditions to avoid the slightest pretense of fanning the spark into a flame and may turn over New York's seconding of the president's nomination to that polished and graceful orator, Chauncey M. Depew, in view of the various rumors about his being nominated for vice president.

The crowds want to hear Roosevelt, however, and they may force him to speak whether he wants to or not.

After the nomination will come the presentation of the platform, which is now complete save in some minor particulars. Its ringing sentences, read by the chairman of the platform committee, Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, will afford another opportunity for expression of party fealty.

Chairman Hanna, Senator Foraker and others received hearty receptions when entering the convention hall, but it was again Governor Roosevelt who set the convention wild. Still wearing his Rough Rider hat he appeared on the main entrance and instantly the crowd cheered frantically. As he took the way towards his seat his passage was impeded by enthusiastic greeting of delegates. Senator Platt was by his side. The governor did not appear so sternly austere as formerly. He smiled at and left to plaudits of the multitude.

Temporary Chairman Wolcott called the convention to order and the first business was report of committees.

The report of the committee on credentials was adopted unanimously without debate.

The report of the committee on permanent organization was adopted, and Senator Lodge, who was made permanent chairman, was escorted to the chair by Governor Roosevelt and Gov.
Shaw of Iowa. He received an ovation.
Senator Lodge was introduced and delivered one of his characteristic speeches.
He was applauded frequently and at the end was given one grand round of applause.

Mr. Lodge's voice showed carrying power. When he referred to the "infamy" in Kentucky the delegates from that state yelled their approval.

Then followed the usual gavel presentation.

Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, chairman of the committee on resolutions, was recognized and presented the platform to the convention. The Indiana senator received a flattering reception as he mounted the stage, but when he be-

SENATOR CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS.

gan to read the declaration of principles scores of delegates and alternates got up and began filing out the hall. The confusion became so great Senator Fairbanks was unable to proceed and Senator Lodge was compelled to appeal for order.

"This is a matter of most vital importance," said Mr. Lodge, "it is an enunciation of the principles upon which the Republican party is to stand."

This appeal had some effect. Many delegates returned to their seats, but thousands who could not hear Senator Fairbanks became restless and many left the hall. After the platform was adopted the convention adjourned at 3:15 until 10 tomorrow.

TEXANS HAD TO FIGHT.

Two Delegates Mix Over Statements Made Before Committee.

Philadelphia, June 20.—The committee on credentials after an all night session adjourned at 6 o'clock this morning having completed all its business. A lively fist fight between two Texas delegates occurred at 4:30 o'clock just after the committee had listened to arguments from contesting delegations from that state. As the delegates were leaving the committee room, W. H. Love, a delegate from McKinney, Texas, accused Walter Burns of having made statements in the committee room which was not true. Burns denied that he had made any statements and Love called him a liar. Burns promptly planted his fist in Love's face and bystanders interfered. Love was hustled down stairs and taken away by friends.

Immediately after this two negro delegates made violent threats and warlike demonstrations at each other. This trouble also involved a question of veracity. They were dragged apart without difficulty.

The Texas delegation presented 11 contests—two among the delegates at large and nine in the first nine districts. The contestants were followers of E. H. R.
Green and the opposed delegation was headed by Congressman R. B. Hawley of Galveston. The issue was disastrous to the Green people who not only lost all the contests, but had one man supplanted by a Hawley follower in the Fourth district. Two Hawley delegates were given seats from the Sixth district, no delegates from there previously having been admitted to the convention.

Never before were there so few Texas students to return from other states. They are mostly returning now from Austin, College Station, Waco, Georgetown, Belton and other Texas seats of learning, and this is well. The principles of education are the same in Texas, Virginia and Massachusetts, and nowadays the facilities are pretty nearly the same. For Texas students Texas colleges offer the advantage of Texas association, Texas acquaintance and Texas atmosphere. The Texas student educated in Massachusetts returns home a stranger. The Texas student educated at home is thoroughly in touch with the sentiment and the people of his state, and that means much in business. It means also keeping a great deal of money at home, and most of all it means the development of state pride and state culture.—Galveston Tribune.

Sweetest Spot on Earth.

The farm was not quite paid for.
Early and late the father and mother toiled, living sparingly, and growing daily more silent and stern. The two sons, aged twelve and fourteen years, worked as steadily almost as the parents, but the silence and the repression wore upon their young hearts, and by degrees they became discouraged, then dissatisfied with their home.

It was a terrible shock to the busy, pre-occupied father, when by chance he overheard the two boys planning to leave home, and it did not take long to shape plans whereby the whole atmosphere of the place was changed. His two manly sons were more to him than all the farms in the world.

From a silent, apparently unsympathetic man, he found it worth while to become once more a boy, interested in all that interested his two boys, full of pranks and jokes, brimming over with fun, a treasure house of tales of the long ago that were far more thrilling to the bewildered boys than a dozen longed for books of adventure.

The mother brightened up the dreary home, bought some books and subscribed for more papers.
She smiled now, even when her heart was heaviest, and drew near to her sons in a way she had never had time with before. And the boys promptly adjusted themselves to the new conditions of the home and voted it the sweetest spot on earth.—Farm Journal.

CHEERING NEWS.

Troops of the Various Countries Reach the Chinese Capital.

London, June 20.—The silence of Roberts since June 16 disposes in some quarters the belief the line of communications had again been cut; especially as, according to the latest news from Orange River Colony, the Boers are known to be still hovering about the railroad north of Kroonstad.

According to a Cape Town dispatch General Kitchener had a narrow escape from capture in an engagement at Leeum Spruit on June 14. He was sleeping in a repair train when it was attacked and many engineers captured.

Boers, alleged to be hemmed in by General Rundle, began shelling Ficksburg Tuesday. It is said they apprehended the force marching from the northwest upon them, hence they endeavored to break through to the southward.

PEKIN IS ATTACKED.

Russian Relieving Force Fighting for Admission—Fear for Foreigners.

London, June 20.—"The Russian relieving force arrived outside of Peking this morning," says the Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Express, "and immediately began to attack the city on two sides, employing numerous artillery."

"The force apparently arrived in the nick of time, for the Chinese assert that the attack upon the legations had been successfully renewed."

"On the night of June 16 the Chinese troops under Generals Tung Fuh Siang and Tung Ching attacked the legations and set on fire five European buildings.
Nothing definite is known as to the result, except that the Chinese were disappointed, although reports are discredited by foreigners here and that the Chinese, infuriated by the destruction of Taku, have since massacred all foreigners in Peking."

A modified version of these rumors received at Berlin is that the French, as well as the German minister, has been killed.

The English at Shanghai think that the Chinese had foreign advice in organizing the defenses at Taku, because of the precision with which their attack was delivered. The wires connecting with the harbor mines were cut by the boats of the warships the night before the bombardment.

It is now reported at Shanghai that it was on board the Russian cruiser Ko-rietz and not the Mandchur that the explosion occurred, killing and wounding more than 50.

It is reported that no fewer than 800 Chinese were killed in the forts.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express says he is officially informed that Japan is mobilizing 25,000 men for immediate transport.

The British cruiser Undaunted arrived at Shanghai Monday and at once cleared for action and took up a position commanding the Chinese forts. There are three Chinese cruisers in the harbor.

The new Chinese cruiser Hai Yang, built by the Armstrongs, has been taken into custody at Taku by the British and Russians.

At Yum Nan Fu, where the rising has been gathering force for several days, 680 Christians have been attacked at the French mission settlement, many being put to death. The French consul and three missionaries are still in prison.
The disorderly elements have secured the upperhand at Wu Hu and Czechuan where the native Christians have been massacred.

A thousand boxers are gathering on the outskirts of Tien Tsin.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily News, telegraphing Tuesday says Chinese officials there assert that they have no news from Peking up to June 17.
The situation then was very serious.
Beyond that they claim to have received nothing but they deny that dispatches have been withheld.

"Although I am not willing to adopt the alarmist reports," says the correspondent, "my impression, gathered from the consuls and the Chinese authorities, is that the worst is to be feared in Pekin."

Admiral Seymour's column is now in the middle of an arid plain, with no food and no water, and surrounded by hostile forces."

Russian Loss at Taku.

St. Petersburg, June 20.—Vice Admiral Alexejeff, from Port Arthur, reports the capture of the Taku forts, says bombarding fleet was commanded by the Russian Captain Dubrowski, the senior officer present. The Russian losses were two lieutenants killed, one severely and one slightly wounded and 16 men killed and 67 wounded. The gunboat Giljak was seriously damaged by a shell below the water line and must be docked for repairs. The gun-boat Korejez is leaking in six places and had the cabin destroyed. The gunboat Bobr was damaged. Besides the above Admiral Alexejeff says the French warship Lion, the British Algerine and the gunboat Iltris were engaged.

Marines for China.

Norfolk, Va., June 20.—A company of marines from the Norfolk navyyard will be sent to China at once. Twenty-eight privates, commanded by two sergeants and two corporals have received orders to proceed immediately to the Washington marine barracks, there to go in the Fourth battalion of marines, which is under orders to proceed to San Francisco overland to embark thence for China. It is expected that more men will be drafted from the battalion stationed at this yard for service in Chinese waters.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY

Governor Roosevelt Seems Now to Be Out of the Race.

FAVORITES SO FAR.

Woodruff of New York, Long of Massachusetts and Dolliver of Iowa With None a Cinch—Roosevelt Opposed by Hanna.

Philadelphia, June 20.—Lieutenant-Governor Timothy L. Woodruff will be presented to the national convention as the candidate of New York for vice president. It was decided to do this after a four hours' stormy session of the New York delegation, during which every kind of appeal was made to get Roosevelt to say that he would accept a nomination.

The vice presidential situation is still mixed, because it is asserted that New York makes this move so as to go into the convention with a candidate, and yet hoping that Governor Roosevelt will be nominated. Hanna has stated that he controls the delegates to such an extent that he can nominate any candidate he pleases and it is not known that he has withdrawn his objections to Mr. Woodruff. The latter was as much surprised as anybody over the result. In general the idea seems to be prevalent that Secretary Long is the most favored candidate with a probability that Roosevelt may still be nominated. Governor Roosevelt believes that his wishes having been respected by his own delegation, that he is finally out of the race.

"What is the situation, senator?" was asked of Senator Hanna.

"Roosevelt is out of it and will not be nominated," was the reply.

There was another effort to stampede the delegates to Roosevelt. As before the effort was made by New York and Pennsylvania. Plans had been made to make Roosevelt the candidate. Many stories were circulated. Roosevelt was quoted as saying absolutely that he would accept if nominated. He was also quoted as having had a change of heart and wanted the nomination. In would be a loss of more than a few votes although the Dolliver men in the west declare that they will not vote for Long and there seems to be a large number of eastern men who are now for Long who say they prefer Roosevelt to Dolliver.

This is one of the chances that Senator Hanna is willing to take in the fight he is making.

The confidences between Hanna and Platt were an interesting feature of the vice presidential contest. Hanna talked to Platt as he had talked to Odell and Quigg. He told him that because Platt did not want Roosevelt in New York was no reason why he should attempt to force him upon the party in national politics. Platt then tried to get an agreement from Hanna to support Odell and this was refused on the ground of being unjust to the other candidates in the field. Platt asked for time and the matter went back to the New York delegation.

The contest has not assumed any such definite form as to even approximate the relative strength of the three candidates for the votes of the others in view of developments cannot be considered more than complimentary. The action of different delegations have some significance. New Jersey with 20 votes and California with 18 declared for Long. Other states evinced a desire to support any candidate agreeable to the administration, while there are a number of states in the west that are determined to vote for Roosevelt.

In Maryland there was a curious action. The delegation was favorable to Roosevelt but decided to take him at his word and not support him. They heard the administration was for Long and a number of them sent word to Hanna that Long's nomination would make it difficult to carry that state on account of the feeling for Rear Admiral Schley who is a native of Maryland. The delegates preferred Dolliver for these reasons.

The Kansas delegation are determined for Roosevelt and told him. Wisconsin is another state which seems to be determined to vote for Roosevelt.

NO CERTAINTY YET.

Several Delegations Still Persistent upon the Nomination of Roosevelt.

Philadelphia, June 20.—The vice presidential situation continues to be a perplexing topic with leaders, delegates and an anxious expectant crowd. While many of the former conditions have been defined with clearness, there is far from a clear and final understanding which all accept by common consent. The action of the New York caucus in unanimously agreeing to support Woodruff is not accepted permanently as retiring Roosevelt from the field. Kansas and many other states are insistent that he shall be nominated.

New England is now practically united with 78 votes for Long, although the Connecticut people are wavering. New Jersey adds her strength to Long, and these acquisitions have started a strong current towards Long in western delegations, although Roosevelt's shadow still stands in the way of formal action for the Massachusetts' man.

Dolliver forces have not abated their confidence and are directing most of their efforts in securing assurances of support in case that the Roosevelt movement should disappear.

The Wisconsin delegation, led by Henry C. Payne, has declared for Roosevelt for vice president. At Governor Roosevelt's headquarters it was said that Payne's action was expected, and that he was simply for Roosevelt's nomination because Hanna was against it.

Judge Bartlett Tripp authorized James M. Ashton of Washington to formally announce that he had withdrawn from the vice presidential contest. Judge Tripp's desire was, Mr. Ashton said, that delegates who had formed a nucleus of his support should cast their votes for Governor Roosevelt. Pursuant to this request, Mr. Ashton announced that a large majority of the delegates from the states of Washington, Oregon, Utah and North and South Dakota would support the Empire State governor.

Elevator Falls Five Stories.

Philadelphia, June 20.—The elevator in the Hotel Walton fell seven stories late last night and injured five of the passengers and the elevator boy. The two passengers most seriously hurt were J. G. Pringley, a delegate from Oklahoma Territory, and Brenton F. Hall, a delegate from Belding, Mich.

Dr. Burton and Walter Hunter of Delaware, Marcus West of Washington and Dr. Camden of Texas were also among the injured.

Pringley and Hall have broken legs. Dr. Camden has a arm and leg broken, having been throw out of the elevator as it fell.

Trouble Expected.

Richmond, June 20.—Henry Harrison is to be executed at Martinsville, Henry county, today for criminal assault. Owing to rumors that negroes would attempt to rescue him and that the whites would endeavor to lynch him, the militia was ordered by Governor Tyler to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to the scene.

Against the Trust.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 20.—The supreme court here overruled the demurrer of the Continental Tobacco company to the application of Attorney General Crow in the ouster proceedings for alleged violation of the antitrust state laws and directed the attorneys to agree on a commissioner to take testimony within five days.

Wheat Again Advances.

Chicago, June 20.—Wheat had another sensation in price today. July sold up to 81½ cents, 3½ cents higher than at the close yesterday and closed at top.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

fact all kinds of rumors were in circulation and the situation remained cloudy all yesterday and did not clear very much in the evening. One thing definitely developed. There is to be a fight. The nomination is not to be made without a contest. Senator Hanna is doing all he can to defeat Roosevelt and will continue on that line to the end. He is lining up the friends of the administration against Roosevelt. In this he is acting in harmony with the wishes of Roosevelt, who has urged all delegates visiting him not to vote for him for vice president.

The next serious proposition that confronts Mr. Hanna is what he shall do as between Long and Dolliver. There is a popular sentiment for Dolliver in the west that is hard to overcome. Long is regarded as a passive kind of a candidate, and while no objection is urged against him, he does not attract the delegates. But he is Mr. Hanna's personal choice and is preferred by the president. Dolliver's friends have pointed out to Senator Hanna that the Iowa candidate has now got into the fight so far that he wants to win; that Hanna replied that defeat would not injure Dolliver. He has already acquired a great deal of prominence, says Senator Hanna, and he will not be injured if he should be defeated by a candidate like Secretary Long.

In making the fight against Roosevelt, Senator Hanna finds the opponents of Roosevelt divided, some for Long and some for Dolliver. The question of transferring the vote from one to the other without nominating the man they wish to defeat, is the difficult problem.

"If we can't do it, then we haven't got control of the convention," said Senator Hanna.

"If the friends of the president cannot agree upon a candidate and by their differences cause the nomination of a man that is not wanted, and does not want the place, they will have to take the responsibility for it."

The senator did not believe there

GRIMES COUNTY

MUSICAL CONVENTION.

Held at Concord Church, Saturday and Sunday, June 16 and 17. Report of Proceedings.

The annual meeting of the Grimes County Musical Convention was held at Concord church, Grimes county, last Saturday and Sunday. A representative of The Eagle was on hand, as well as quite a number from Bryan, and a large contingent from Brazos county.

The Grimes County Musical Convention is an organization whose birth dates away back in the early days of Grimes county. It was organized about the year 1867, at old Red Top (now Martin's Prairie) by Capt. Moses Upchurch, now deceased, who also organized the first choir in the county. Capt. Upchurch's son, Riley Upchurch, is now the president of the convention.

Saturday and Sunday were beautiful days, and the attendance was large. Everything passed off agreeably, there were lots of goods singers present as well as pretty girls and gallant young men.

Dansby & Dansby of Bryan furnished free plenty of ice for the occasion, so that there was lot of good drinking water, Burt Norwood of Bryan furnished badges for the delegates, without charge, and everything went off in good business like style.

SATURDAY.

Convention called to order at 10 o'clock by Prof. A. J. Horton of Concord, who led in two songs.

Prayer by J. A. Zuber of Iola. Prof. Horton was elected president pro tem, and J. A. Zuber secretary.

On call for credentials, the delegates elected were reported as follows:

Pankey—Delegates, Van Forrester, W. S. Tryon and Miss Zula Isbell, alternate, Ed Dowell. Iola—Delegates, Miss Lizzie Grissett, Miss Lillian Rhodes, Dodd Mize; alternates, Miss Ella Grissett and Duncan McMilland.

HAWAIIAN GOVERNMENT.

It Passes Out and United States Takes Charge of the Island.

Honolulu, June 12, via San Francisco, June 20.—Agents of the postoffice, the customhouse and the internal revenue have everything in readiness for the change of the government of the Hawaiian islands, which occurs tomorrow night at midnight. At that hour the government of the republic of Hawaii passes away forever, and the laws and customs of the United States takes its place.

Bert M. Thomas, the representative of the internal revenue department, has, in some respects, the hardest, and in some respects the easiest job of the three. He has to introduce an entirely new system, starting it from the beginning, but he has no old customs or prejudices to encounter. Every package in the hands of dealers containing liquor, beer, cigars, tobacco or anything else upon which an internal revenue tax is collectible throughout the islands has to be marked so as to show that it was in stock on June 14. Every dealer has to take out a license, and give bond and open the accounts required to be kept by the internal revenue department. The wholesale dealers are cooperating with him, and he expects to have everything in readiness by midnight June 14.

W. S. Chance and Andrew Smith are here representing the customs department. Their work is a task involving an endless amount of detail. The Hawaiian customs service was a simple affair. There were just five schedules of articles, those free by civil code, those free by treaty, those dutiable at 10 per cent ad valorem, those dutiable at 15 per cent and those dutiable at 45 per cent.

From the postoffice department Messrs. Flint and Hall are here to start the new system. The Hawaiian system was closely allied to the American system also. There will be no radical changes here that involve great difficulties, although there is much detail to be looked after. Hawaiian stamps carry a letter if it is deposited in the postoffice, before midnight of June 13, but not if it is deposited after that.

Governor Dole has been busy the last few days deciding on his appointments, but none of them have been announced, nor will they be until June 14. The plans for the inauguration ceremonies are nearly completed, and they include a very elaborate programme.

The first Democratic territorial convention ever held in Hawaii assembled last night in the drill shed. It elected six delegates to the national Democratic convention at Kansas City. They were instructed for Bryan.

BOERS AFTER KITCHENOR.

He Was Attacked by Boers and Had a Narrow Escape.

London, June 20.—The news from Shanghai from official circles is distinctly cheering. The arrival at Peking of the relief expedition, commanded by Admiral Seymour, and the safety of legations which later were confirmed by a dispatch from Shanghai, published in the second edition of the London Times, announcing on authority of Tao Ti Sheng that Seymour's force arrived at the Chinese capital on June 17 and it is believed a general brightening situation is on.

No details have yet been received of the casualties or of the condition of affairs at Peking, but well informed people express an opinion that the summoning of Li Hung Chang to the capitol foreshadows an early submission of the dowager empress to the dictates of the powers.

The report from Shanghai reads: "Reports originating from Chinese sources and credited by local foreign officials, state the legations at Peking were safe on Sunday, June 17. Admiral Seymour with his relieving column is also reported to have reached Peking."

Injured in a Collision.

Waxahachie, Tex., June 20.—Mrs. T. N. Elliott and her baby were painfully, the baby quite seriously, injured at Ovilla, near here. Mrs. Elliott was driving in a buggy going up a hill when some one, who was coming down the hill, permitted the horse to become unmanageable, causing a collision between the two buggies. It is thought the child's leg was broken.

Jones County Wheat Yield.

Ablene, Tex., June 20.—George H. Brockett of Jones county says that the yield of wheat in that county is phenomenal. He told of a thrasher man in one locality who had thrashed a number of crops, and the yield had ranged from 31 to 38 bushels per acre.

Damages for Alleged Seduction.

Yountown, O., June 20.—Miss Leona Blair has been awarded $5,000 damages against Captain Richard T. Ellis, of the Thirty-third regiment, United States volunteers in the Philippines, for seduction. She sued for $10,000. Miss Blair is under 16 years of age.

Killed in a Wreck.

Lebanon, Ky., June 20.—Two men were killed, five seriously injured and 10 slightly injured in a wreck on the Greensburg branch of the Louisville and Nashville railway at Calvary, six miles from Lebanon.

Not Hazardous Risks.

Buffalo, June 20.—The supreme lodge, Knights of Honor rescinded a resolution classing Christian Scientists or faith curists as hazardous risks.

Lord Monson Dead.

Paris, June 20.—Lord Monson, brother of Sir Edmond Monson, the British ambassador to France, is dead, aged 70 years.
